Weather Forecast Valid until 8 pm Tomorrow

Winds: Southeast at 14 to 23mph with higher gusts during heavier showers.

Seas: A combination of waves and swells reaching as high as 2.1 to 3.1 metres or 7 to 10 feet. A high surf advisory and small craft caution remains in effect.

Weather Forecast for St. Kitts & Nevis: A moderate to fresh trade wind flow generated by a ridge of high pressure could transport shallow pockets of low level moisture over and around the islands tonight into early tomorrow, thus maintaining a moderate chance of showers during that time. By late tomorrow into Tuesday, moisture and instability associated with the outer bands from Tropical Storm Karen will further increase the chances for showers, thunderstorms and gusty winds by that time.

Weather tonight: Partly cloudy skies with a 40 percent or moderate chance of showers.

Weather tomorrow: Partly cloudy to cloudy skies with an 80 percent or very high chance of showers and a 50 percent or moderate chance of thunderstorms mainly after midday. Gusty winds are likely during heavy downpours.
