Weather Forecast for St. Kitts & Nevis: A weak tropical wave will be moving over the islands during the next 24 hours. While no significant weather is anticipated because of the lack of deep layered support, shallow moisture will increase the chance of brief showers over the islands during the period.

Weather tonight: Partly cloudy with a 40 percent or moderate chance of brief showers.

Weather tomorrow: Partly cloudy to sometimes cloudy with a 60 percent or moderate chance of passing showers mainly in the afternoon.
