TO: ALL MEDIA OUTLETS

FROM: St. Christopher Air and Sea Ports Authority “SCASPA”

DATE: February 19th, 2021

SUBJECT: SCASPA Press Release

The St. Christopher Air & Sea Ports Authority (SCASPA) is aware of an internal email addressed to SCASPA’s staff that has been circulating on social media in relation to the current situation experienced by the St. Kitts-Nevis-Anguilla National Bank and takes the opportunity to correct any misgivings in relation to this email.

We take this opportunity to retract any information pertaining to that correspondence that was not accurately stated and misrepresented the Bank’s current situation.

Although, our first priority is to keep our staff informed, we know that we have a responsibility to ensure that accurate information is disseminated, and this was not done in this instance. Note well that the information previously disseminated was without malice and subsequently corrected and recalled.

As a good Corporate citizen, The St. Christopher Air & Sea Ports Authority continues to value the support and commitment of the St. Kitts-Nevis-Anguilla National Bank in the community and certainly look forward to our continued partnership in serving the people of St. Kitts and Nevis.
